Orthopaedic Surgery, Sports Medicine

Welcome to Orthopaedic Associates of Southern Delaware

Originally from Pottsville, PA (home to Yuengling, America's oldest brewery), I graduated from Villanova University and completed medical school and my orthopaedic surgery residency at Thomas Jefferson University and the Rothman Institute in Philadelphia. While there, I provided physician coverage for the Phillies, Flyers, Eagles, 76ers, Philadelphia Marathon, St. Joe's University, and Villanova sports teams.

After my residency, I completed an orthopaedic sports medicine fellowship at the Steadman Clinic and Steadman Philippon Research Institute in Vail, Colorado, where I specialized in arthroscopy and joint preservation surgeries of the hip, knee, and shoulder. I provided care for professional athletes and skiers, and I traveled with the US Olympic and National Ski and Snowboard teams, for whom I continue to serve as team medical consultant.

I am a member of the American Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Society, Arthroscopy Association of North America, and American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons; I also serve as a reviewer for the American Journal of Sports Medicine.

I live in Lewes with my wife, Tamara, who is a physician assistant. We have four children, Finnegan, Anika, Kieran, and Tristan, and we all love the beach, all sports, and anything outdoors. I have found a welcoming home in Southern Delaware, and I look forward to serving the orthopedic needs of our growing communities for many years to come.

Sincerely,
Dr. Patrick Kane
